Rich- I'll call you tomorrow. An in-person news conference might be tricky for us as we are limited to essential travel only for the foreseeable future, but a joint telecon or press release might work.

Rich,
Thanks for touching base....I apologize, I'm not getting my work phone messages forwarded quickly. The last we spoke I think our Exec Team was thinking about doing a bigger release after all. But with everything that's going on, I'm not 100% sure what we'll want. Do you have a timeline that we will be ready to make it public? Are your people definitely opposed to a news conference ?
If you'd like to speak on the phone, my cell is: Ex. 6 Personal Privacy (PP)
